

DOUGHBOYS FACE UNBEATEN JACKSONVILLE SUNDAY

Army-Navy Clash Expected To Draw Huge Attendance

Fort Benning will have its own version of the Army-Navy grid classic on Sunday afternoon in Doughboy Stadium when the undefeated, untied Jacksonville Naval Air Station Flyers invade the post for a battle with the Doughboys.

The tilt looms as one of the best in Dixie this week-end and is expected to attract a banner crowd to the stadium. Bands, cheerleaders and mascots will enliven the proceedings and that plus the intense Army-Navy rivalry should add up to a thrilling afternoon.

Three First Army Units To Inactivate Tomorrow

Three First Army special troops units will become officially inactivated tomorrow, November 2, to be followed during the coming month by 24 others. Brig. Gen. Oden J. Ross, Commanding General of Fourth Headquarters, First Army, announced today.

Units to disband tomorrow are the 31st Medical Depot Company, the 182nd Ordnance Depot Company, and the 118th Evacuation Hospital, all three veterans of the Battle of Europe. They returned here in the summer months for redeployment training which was completed when Japan surrendered.

Personnel from inactivated units are transferred to the Casual Detachment of Fourth Headquarters, First Army, if they are eligible for discharge or will become eligible shortly. If they are not yet eligible, they are utilized in other First Army units here under Fourth Headquarters or reported to Headquarters First Army for reassignment.

In announcing the inactivation, Gen. Ross made the following statement to personnel of inactivating units: "As Commanding General of the Fourth Headquarters, First Army, I have the duty of announcing to you that your unit is to become inactivated, after what in most cases has been several years of valuable service in the Army of the United States.

MISSION COMPLETED
"The mission of your unit as an army organization has been successfully completed, and the manner in which that mission has been performed reflects credit upon all of you who have at any time been connected with the unit.

"As you go your respective ways, some of you to civilian life and others to continued military service, I should like to congratulate you both as a member of the unit and individually.

JOB WELL DONE
"It is a job well done."

Gen. Ross announced that, in addition to the three units to be officially inactivated tomorrow, three more, the 397th QM Truck Company, 472nd Motor Ambulance Company, and 3052nd QM Salvage Company, are scheduled for inactivation on Monday, November 5, to be followed by others throughout the month of November.

The Doughboys will undoubtedly go into action as the underdog against a team that has swept through five straight games without even a relatively close call. Miami Naval and Fort Pierce have both felt the sting of the Flier attack twice during the past month while the fifth Jax victim was Corpus Christi (Texas) Naval Air Station, early season conqueror of Rice Institute.

The Benning eleven, on the other hand, will carry a three-one and one record in the Navy tilt. Victories were achieved over Great Lakes, Keesler Field and Fort McClellan, while there was also a scoreless tie with Keesler and a defeat by the AAFPC Skymasters at Fort Worth, Texas.

T-FORMATION
Jacksonville features a scintillating T-formation attack built around Joe Brown, former Georgia Tech back. Brown keeps up a merry-go-round performance all afternoon handing off the oval to such scabbacks as Bobby Hanlon and Chuck Hunsinger and a bruising fullback from Ohio Wesleyan named Dick Frantz. Hanlon is a Notre Dame product who played last fall at Great Lakes while Hunsinger is a prep school find from Illinois.

Operating in front of this quartet is a formidable forward wall that is tougher than the hide of the Battleship Missouri. It is anchored by a pair of former Chicago Bear tackles, Ray Bray and Les Akin, and boasts two more experts in Guard Johnny McGarry from Cleveland's Rams and Center Walt Dubzinski from Boston's Yanks.

INJURIES HAMPER
The Doughboys have been working doubly hard all week to prepare for the Navy broadside that will be tossed at them Sunday. Head Coach Bill Meek is reconstructing his defenses to halt Jacksonville's laterals, their most potent weapon, and he hopes he has hit on the solution. Sunday will tell the tale.

Still badly crippled by injuries, especially at the end positions, the Doughboys will field the same starting eleven that opened against Fort McClellan last week. The forward wall will have Ed Willard and Mike Spann at ends John Collins and Jim Montgomery at tackles, Mike Gussie and Gene Cerum at guards, and Bob Cherry at center. Ends Bill Spoor and Paul Sizemore are still on the injured list but may see limited action while Monk Edwards, another injured frankman, appears lost for the year.

The all-Dixie backfield remains intact with Buck Hausa at quarterback, Jeff Burkett and Russ Craft at halfbacks, and Dick McPhee at full. Hausa is slightly injured but is expected to be ready Sunday although his understudy, Stan Thiele may start. Three good backs were lost last week when Tom Waldron, Norm Rushton and Jimmy Mahan were transferred from the post. Armand Cure and Aldo Cenci, both of whom scored against McClellan, and Jimmy Ferrant, Bill Russ and Kyle Estenik are the remaining ball-carriers likely to see action against the Fliers.

Historical Names On 1st Army Staff

If a stranger to Fort Benning should happen to read the names of the officers serving on Brig. Gen. Oden J. Ross' staff at Fourth Headquarters, First Army, he would be startled at the paper in disbelief.

He'd be seeing the following: S-1: Paul Revere. S-2: James Knox Polk. S-3: John Brown. Executive Officer: John Smith.

Salisbury Replaces Albert As Lawson Fd. Commander

Colonel Glenn C. Salisbury, former commanding officer of Pope Field, Fort Bragg, N. C., and a veteran pilot from World War I, has assumed command of Lawson Field, succeeding Colonel John E. Albert, who was separated from the service and placed on inactive duty.

Upon assuming command, Col. Salisbury became the second commanding officer of Lawson Field since it became a Troop Carrier base in September, 1942. Entering the service on June 7, 1917, as a Private First Class in the aviation section of the Signal Enlisted Reserve Corps, Colonel Salisbury has attained the ratings of a Command Pilot and Aircrew Observer. He has over 5,000 flying hours to his credit.

"60-Pointers" Are Discharged Ahead of Time

Although today, Nov. 1, was the day originally set aside for the start of "60-point" discharges, more than three-quarters of the Fort Benning "60-pointers" have been speeded to Separation Centers or already are on orders to leave within the next three days, Maj. Marvin L. Holland, post personnel officer, revealed today.

Army Ground forces troops were declared "surplus" 12 days ago and were allowed to be discharged in advance of the Nov. 1 date. Shipments of Army personnel will fill special orders for today, tomorrow and Saturday.

ONLY 800 REMAIN

Soldiers Compete Against Professional Performers

Doughboy Stadium, transformed into a replica of the Old West, will once again be the scene this afternoon and tonight of the Wild West Rodeo and Hollywood Thrill Circus which played to large crowds Wednesday for the benefit of the National War Fund.

Once again banner crowds are expected of the 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. performances today—and once again the National War Fund will be the chief beneficiary. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children under 12 years of age.

There was a thrill minute in the Wednesday performances with almost two dozen Benning soldiers competing against the professionals in bronco busting, steer-riding and bulldozing.

Paratroopers and Infantrymen, all of them former cowboys and rodeo performers, showed they had lost none of their own skill and received great ovations from the soldier audiences at both shows yesterday.

The professionals also put on thrilling performances in real hair-raising fashion, wrestling all over the stadium, a turf with a real ominous collection of rambunctious broncos and fire-snorting Brahmas.

One of the most interesting novelty numbers was the excellent training of a dancing horse which even played tunes on a set of musical bells.

And then for the grand finale, there was the Super-dare-devil who roared down the track on the south side of the stadium in his car, sped up a 12-foot ramp and literally flew over five other cars while he still remained at the wheel.

200 PERFORMERS
Many other acts kept the War Fund crowd amused and amazed during the two and a half hour show which features some 200 performers, horses, steers and other animals.

Rodeo music yesterday was provided by the 267th AGF Band, while today the 99th AGF Bandmen will second the bandstand to provide musical accompaniment.

CIVILIANS WELCOME
Capt. Richard E. Tukey, post chairman of the War Fund Drive, emphasized that civilians as well as soldiers were cordially invited to attend both of today's performances.

Incidentally, civilians who want to come can get tickets at Outposts 7 and 8 on Benning Boulevard and Lumpkin Road, respectively, and they can show the tickets at the gate as they come in, so that they won't need passes.

The tickets will go on sale at the outposts at 1:15 p. m. for the 3:30 performance, and at 6:00 p. m. for the 7:30 show.

Main Exchange Stocks Up Heavily For Pre-Christmas Buying Season

Re-arrangement of the Main Post Exchange for the pre-Christmas buying season has been completed, Manager Charles Sheen announced today.

Heavy stocks of watches, jewelry, perfumes, toys and sundry other gift items have been obtained for sale in the exchange and many have already been placed on display in the re-arranged PX.

The Fort Benning Exchange has received a shipment of $15,000 in watches, All Swiss movements, the watches are famous makes and will sell from $15.50 to $53.75. Military personnel are required to obtain a certificate of necessity from their commanding officers.

A men's department is gradually being set-up in the rear of the store where all types of toiletries and items for male interest may be obtained.

Costume jewelry is in ample supply with prices ranging from $2 through $12.50.

Each day brings additional shipments to the Main Exchange as PX officials rush to prepare for the heaviest volume of Christmas buying in many years.

Brazilian Army Officers Visit

A group of high-ranking Brazilian Army officers, headed by Major Gen. Joao Batista de Azevedo, commander of the Brazilian Expeditionary Forces in Italy in World War II, Brig. Gen. Euclydes Zenobio da Costa, commander of the Divisional Infantry of the First Brazilian Expeditionary Force, and Air Brig. Antonio Aspel Netto, commander of Brazil's Fourth Air Force, spent three days at The Infantry School this week.

The group was met at Lawson Field Sunday by Maj. Gen. John W. O'Daniel, commandant of The Infantry School, and other high ranking officers. The guard of honor was provided by school The Infantry School.

After a tour of the Parachute School Monday morning, the party went into the field in the afternoon with General O'Daniel in various training planes.

Rapetti Re-Enlists After Two Months as Civilian

Master Sergeant Alfred J. Rapetti, well known at Fort Benning as a former secretary to S-1 at the Parachute School, and who was known in the ETO as the "General's Secretary" has re-enlisted in the Army after two months of civilian life.

The 28-year-old Master Sergeant who during his colorful military career was secretary to Generals Eisenhower, Bradley, Patton and Keyes, stated: "I like the Army system of doing things. I was overseas in the midst of everything and I want to get back in and stay in. I like the respect everyone has for a Regular Army man." At present Master Sergeant Rapetti is assigned to Headquarters, 4th Infantry Division, General Staff Section at Camp Butner, North Carolina.

Five Academics Get Conduct Medal

Five men and women of the Academic Regiment, The Infantry School, who have "demonstrated fidelity through faithful and exact performance of duty, efficiency through capacity to produce desired results, and whose behavior has been such as to deserve commendation," have been awarded the Good Conduct Medal, regimental headquarters announced recently.

They are: Sgt. Madrid R. Albarrelli and Herman N. Sundesen, and Col. Richard C. Watson, of Headquarters Company, and Col. Agatha R. Burns and Pauline B. Scanzara of WAC Detachment Two.

Next he turned up in Oran attached to the Corps Headquarters Intelligence Section, where his knowledge of languages helped him in the interrogation of prisoners. After Lieutenant General George S. Patton took command of the II Corps, Rapetti was assigned as his personal secretary. When General Omar N. Bradley relieved Patton, Master Sergeant Rapetti remained on the job, and it was General Bradley who awarded him the Legion of Merit. During this period General Dwight D. Eisenhower commended Rapetti's service on his many visits to II Corps Headquarters.

OFFICE ON WHEELS

"In the old days when battles were fought from trench lines," says Rapetti, "the general's headquarters were relatively quiet. In World War II the general's office is usually on wheels and he goes where the fighting is. We lived in the field for 15 months and spent a lot of that time in our fox holes and slit trenches. Enemy artillery and plane strafings were the worst, I guess. I lost several good friends and had two very near things myself."

Master Sergeant Rapetti left the Parachute School for separation at Fort McPherson, Georgia, July 5. GI's were amazed when the young soldier drew travel pay to London, England, where he was stationed at the end of his three-year term of service.

'Thanks Loads' Due Friday With Load of Fine Talent

Hard on the heels of "Town Topics," which closed its post run last night, another USO-Camp Shows' Victory Unit entitled "Thanks Loads" arrives Friday for a week-long run at post show houses.

The variety revue will open Friday, November 2, at the Alabama Area Gym with a single performance at 8:30 p. m. Saturday night, "Thanks Loads" will give a single performance at 7 p. m. at the Red Cross Rec Hall in the ASF Regional Hospital on the main post.

After a Sunday layoff, the performers will resume with "Thanks Loads" on Monday when they appear at Theater No. 4 in Harmony Church giving two shows at 7 and 8:30 p. m. The same time schedule will hold true the rest of the week with Tuesday night performances at Theater No. 11 in Harmony Church, Wednesday night at Theater No. 3 in the TPS Area, and Thursday night at the Main Theater. Admission, of course, is free to all military personnel and their guests.

GOLD COASTERS

Headlining the cast is a six-girl dance chorus called "The Gold Coasters." Also in the revue are Renee Melba, xylophonist; Patricia Floyd, pianist; Sid and Bonnie Dean, Gordon Alexander Co., magicians; Three Gobs and a Girl, acrobats; and the Cleveland Twins, singers.

The Six Gold Coasters are a line of six good looking young girls, all dancers of proven ability. Upon conclusion of their original Camp Shows tours, the girls returned to theatres and night clubs, but found the lure of Camp Shows irresistible. They missed the GI audiences.

Putting their heads together, each gave her opinion of the type of routine she thought GIs would most enjoy, and from the consensus of opinion Margo Eden, well-known Chicago producer, has staged three eye-arresting routines. One of the routines is a swing arrangement of a modern Scotch dance. There's a Jazz Boogie and a delightful demure Milk-Maid number with a new and different twist.

Women's Club Reception Set Next Monday

The Infantry School Women's Club extends a cordial invitation to wives of all officers and warrant officers, as well as WAC officers and members of the Army Nurse Corps, to attend a reception and tea on next Monday, November 5, at 3 p. m. at the Polo Hunt Club, located on Running Avenue on the main post.

Wives of commanding officers of the various installations at the post will receive with the president, Mrs. Charles M. Chamberlain Jr., and other club officers. Later, Maj. Gen. John W. O'Daniel, commandant of the Infantry School, will address the group.

Club officers emphasize that Monday's reception will be purely a social gathering to acquaint those eligible for membership with the many interesting features of its varied program, and to outline plans for the coming season.

Recent Promotions At RC Dispensary

Four promotions were recently granted enlisted personnel of the Reception Center Dispensary. Sergeants Josephine Frye and Charles Booser were elevated to the grade of Staff Sergeant; Pfc. Ann Borden Mitchell and William Gadsden were raised to the grade of Technician Fifth Grade.

The meetings are of necessity late in starting this year due to widespread turnover of post personnel in recent months.

Bolet Opens Concert Series Tonight

Famed Cuban Pianist At Children's School

BY PFC. JOHN HAMMOND

The most ambitious concert season in Fort Benning's history opens tonight, November 1st, with a recital by Officer Candidate Jorge Bolet, world-famed Cuban pianist, at the Main Post Children's School at 8:30 p. m.

O. C. Bolet has appeared as soloist with many of the leading symphony orchestras of the country under such conductors as Eugene Ormandy, Vladimir Golschmann, and Fritz Reiner. In Washington, while a lieutenant in the Cuban Army and military attaché to his country's embassy, he received the unanimous praise of the city's critics in appearances at the National Symphony and in recitals.

While a student at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, O. C. Bolet won two of the most coveted honors open to young musicians: the Josef Hoffman award for the year's outstanding pianist, and the Walter W. Naumberg Foundation prize. During a span of fourteen years he studied piano with David Sapoznik, and a group of Preludes and Scherzos of Chopin. It is possible that popular demand may force inclusion as an encore of the Polonaise, which the movie has put into the hit parade of favorites.

When Cuba entered the war in December, 1941, O. C. Bolet gave up his concert career, enlisted in the Cuban Army, was commissioned and trained as an infantry officer at Camp Columbia. His country soon sent him to Washington as military attaché, realizing it had a potential wartime diplomat who would make an ideal representative of Cuban culture.

JOHN U. S. ARMY

After three years with the embassy, O. C. Bolet joined the United States armed forces as an enlisted man at Camp Croft, S. C., in February of this year. While in the army he has still found time to practice and give occasional concerts.

Sgt. William A. Long, baritone soloist with the Reception Center Chorus will give the second concert of the November series at 8:30 p. m. on November 14, same time and place.

Sgt. Long has had a long and successful career as a concert artist and with the assistance of Sgt. Varnell L. Ford at the piano will present a program of Schubert lieder, the ever-popular "Song of the Flea" by Moussorgsky, the Toreador Song from Carmen, an English group, one group of Negro spirituals, and one of pseudo-spirituals by Wolfe and MacGimsey.

APPEARED IN OPERA

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Sgt. Long has appeared in opera, over the radio, and in many Victory Loan drives. He has a bachelor of arts degree in sociology and holds a master's degree from Atlanta University.

The final concert of the November series will take place on November 28, also at the Main Post Children's School. Warrant Officer Guy Taylor, assisted by Warrant Officer Richard Shores, will give a violin recital featuring the Cesar Franck Sonata in A Major, the unaccompanied E Major Partita of Bach, the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto, and a group of short, popular pieces arranged by Kreisler and Segovia.

STUDIED CONDUCTING

Mr. Taylor studied violin with Otto Karadeck in his home town of Birmingham, Ala., where he concertized extensively until 1941, when he went to Minneapolis to join the Symphony and study conducting with Dmitri Mitropoulos. For three years he has been director of the 87th Division Band.

Mr. Shores, also associated with the 87th, received his master's degree in composition from the Eastman Conservatory, has worked extensively in radio, and played in numerous recitals with Mr. Taylor throughout their Army careers.

Guild's President Experienced Young Actor, Announcer

Experienced young actor is Pfc. Bill Parker, president of the Fort Benning Theater Guild and Feature Editor of "Fort Benning On The Air," nightly Fort Benning news and feature radio program heard at 5:15 p. m. Monday through Friday over Station WRBL.

Parker, who introduces the feature portion of "Fort Benning on the Air" and has complete charge of the evening's feature bill, has appeared in two Theater Guild productions here at Fort Benning. He handled the romantic lead op-

PFC. BILL PARKER

Postie Mary Hundertmark in "Separate Rooms," and played in "Boy Meets Girl." Incidentally, he was evidently quite impressed with "Separate Rooms," and especially with Miss Hundertmark, because shortly after the play he and Miss Hundertmark announced their engagement!

MOHAWK DRAMA

Parker's first real acting experience came with the Mohawk Drama Festival at Schenectady, N. Y., where he spent two years studying under Academy Award winner Charles Coburn. There he appeared in support of actress Jean Muir in Maxwell Anderson's "High Tor," and also acted in "The Late Christopher Bean," "Winterest," and "The Eve of St. Mark."

In 1942, Parker enrolled at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, where he studied all phases of the theater until he entered the army in the autumn of 1942. Bill volunteered for paratroop duty and joined the 511th Parachute Infantry Regiment, of the 11th Airborne Division. After completing jump school and demolition training, he was assigned to the special services section of the 511th.

Guild Candidates Try Out For "The Man Who Came To Dinner"

The largest number of candidates in the year-old history of the Fort Benning Theater Guild attended try-outs and castings during the past week for "The Man Who Came To Dinner," the Guild's forthcoming production.

Under the direction of Sgt. Sue Ann Young, of the Parachute School, and Pfc. John Hammond of School Troops, The Infantry School, readings for the various parts in the Kaufman-Hart comedy farce were conducted each night, and tentative castings will soon be announced by Young and Hammond, who are serving as casting directors for the show.

FOURTH PRODUCTION

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" will be the Guild's fourth and biggest production. During the past year, the Guild has presented "Meet the Wife," "Separate Rooms," and "Boy Meets Girl" to soldier audiences all over the post.

Pfc. Bill Parker, president of the Guild, emphasized that the Guild's policy of producing legitimate drama by soldier actors and actresses will be strictly adhered to, and that "The Man Who Came To Dinner" like all other Guild performances, will be played in as many theaters and halls as it is physically possible to do.

NEW MEMBERS

There is still room, Parker asserted, for new members in the Guild, especially those interested in properties and in backstage work. He asked that all who wish to join up and help contact him or S-Sgt. Bill Leggett at the Post Athletic and Recreation Office, or come up to one of the Guild's rehearsals.

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" has some 25 characters, male and female, including a six-voice chorus. It is a comedy-farce based on the personality of Sheridan Whiteside, who is a close imitation of the late Alexander Woolcott. Whiteside is the male lead, while female leads are Maggie, his secretary, and Lorraine

Chapel Choir Prepares for Yule Services

The Main Post Chapel Choir is already busily engaged in preparation of Christmas music. The choir will sing a special vesper candlelight service during the Christmas holidays, and a special midnight service, Christmas Eve in addition to the regular work at morning services.

Also the Choir usually goes caroling on Christmas Eve visiting the hospital, Red Cross, homes of high-ranking post officers, and many other places.

New members are invited to join the choir at this time. Tenors are especially needed but all voices are cordially welcome. Senior Choir rehearsals are held at 7:30 p. m. each Friday evening.

The program for this Sunday as announced by Mrs. J. O. McHugh, director of the choir from Columbus, will be as follows: "What of the Night" by Thompson, with the solo part being sung by Pvt. Arthur Bennett of Omaha, Neb.; Offertory—"Come Ye Blessed" by Scott, sung by Sgt. Corinne Gaudward of Spokane, Wash.

The Junior Choir is also preparing for the Christmas Season during which it will sing a special service. This choir also invited new members between the ages of nine and 12 years. Junior Choir rehearsals are held at the Chapel each Friday at 5:30 p. m.

Free Dancing Lessons At Service Club No. 1

Here's a feature definitely out of the ordinary: Dancing lessons will be presented free of charge each week to servicemen at Service Club No. 1, starting next Monday, November 5th. Virginia Ogie, of Columbus, will instruct.

You're invited to come in and learn how to rumba, conga, samba, and jitterbug free of charge.

The Movie Week

TOO YOUNG TO KNOW: Modern and amusing comedy of situations with good-looking Joan Leslie and her new leading-man, handsome Robert Hutton.

PURSUIT TO ALGIERS: Thriller-diller spy mystery with mystery-man Basil Rathbone and his old sidekick of the Sherlock Holmes piz, Nigel Bruce.

HOLD THAT BLONDE: A fast-moving farce production of an old comedy that is still good for laughs aplenty. It gives Eddie Bracken plenty of chance for his characteristic clowning and provides some neat dramatics for Veronica Lake in the straight femme lead.

MEXICANA: A second-rate Latin musical with luscious Constance Moore doing plenty of warbling, ably supported by pleasant-to-tune Guizara.

THE SPIDER: A neat bit of whodunit with the locale in New Orleans' French Quarter. Richard Conte is the hard-boiled detective with a romantic interest in Faye Marlowe, one of his clients.

THE LOST WEEKEND: This is the clinical report of a dipsomaniac yet it looms as one of the season's fine dramatic pictures. Ray Milland is superb and is ably supported by Jane Wyman and small but effective cast. Strictly for adults.

SUNBONNET SUE: An atmospheric musical featuring early Bowers days and starring Gale Storm and Phil Regan. Plenty of oldie tunes and Irish bartender's daughter plot.

FALLEN ANGEL: Another big dramatic triumph, starring good-looking cookies Alice Faye and Linda Darnell, plus that up-and-coming smoothie, Dana Andrews.

A GAME OF DEATH: International intrigue and everything else with suave John Loder, (Hedy's better-half), and newcomer Audrey Long.

AND THEN THERE WERE NONE: This is the chiller-diller that played Broadway as "The Ten Little Indians." It's tops in entertainment, and among others it stars Barry Fitzgerald and Louis Hayward.

SHE WENT TO THE RACES: Just an ordinary comedy with James Craig and Frances Gifford.

DON'T FENCE ME IN: Typical Roy Rogers musical-western combo capitalizing on the name of the song hit.

RC Tiger Baseballers, Post Service Champs, Honored at Banquet

BY SGT. H. N. BRONNER
Winner of the 1945 Post Service League Championship, the Reception Center Tiger baseball team was honored at a banquet last Thursday night in Mess Hall No. 3, at which time the championship trophy was presented to the team manager, Capt. Norman N. Trueblood. Col. James O. Torbox, Post Executive Officer, presided over the affair. Col. John P. Edgerly, Reception Center Commanding Officer, and Col. Edgerly in turn presented it to Capt. Trueblood.

Col. Edgerly speaking in high praise of the team's performance said, "I am very much pleased with the fine manner in which you have performed during the past season. Many interesting games were played on Watson Field and Gowdy Field, but one game most possessed in my memory was the one played with the 3rd STR when the RC Tigers ended up with the narrow margin of 3 to 1 over the 3rd STR, and I am especially reminded of the over-the-fence hit made by 'Skinny' Young." He further declared, "pitchers get most of the credit, but the other players must support. The officers and men behind the team are to be congratulated."

Lt. Col. A. J. Yeazy, Post Athletic and Recreation Officer, in his remarks to the team said, "the Reception Center baseball team made a significant contribution to the morale of our soldiers."

TRUEBLOOD CONTRIBUTION
Captain Norman N. Trueblood who has been with the team since its inception in 1919, was post provost and police sergeant from 1922 to 1935. During the mid-twenties he worked under General Joseph Stilwell, then post police and prison officer. Sergeant Brown resides with his family at 121 Gillespie loop. (Official U. S. Army Photo—Academic Regiment, The Infantry School.)

VET OF 30 YEARS REENLISTS—When an "old soldier" sees his tenth "hash mark" on his left sleeve he usually takes advantage of his privilege of retiring as a "thirty year man." Instead, M. Sgt. Clifford Brown, supply sergeant major of the Academic Regiment, The Infantry School, has reenlisted for another three years. He is shown above as he was congratulated by Capt. Francis O'Rourke (left), regimental recruiting officer, who served in Panama during the last war and came to Fort Benning in 1919, was post provost and police sergeant from 1922 to 1935. During the mid-twenties he worked under General Joseph Stilwell, then post police and prison officer. Sergeant Brown resides with his family at 121 Gillespie loop. (Official U. S. The housewife division of the SEARS ROEBUCK COMPANY is just about brimming over with bargains. If you're looking for a new house, you'll find it here. The company is a definite aid for good cooking, as are the various sizes of casseroles, complete with lids which may be used as plates, etc. Rooms must be kept clean and shining and the Maid of Honor products will help you do it. Scratch remover and floor wax and polish for furniture and dusting or oil mops are included in this grand assortment of housekeeping utensils which really has to be seen to be appreciated. Drop around today.

What fashion-wise woman doesn't feel her most alluring garbed in dusty black? And even you agree with me, too? I thought you would so you'll be glad to know that the J. A. KIRVEN COMPANY presently has an exciting, new collection of fall and winter costumes beautifully fashioned of choice black materials. Suits and dress, many of the suits are fur-trimmed, may be worn as Kerven's suggests, with either bulky military styles and black suede or kid footwear and pouch or box styled handbags. For your bit of hand-painted gold jewelry set with gem stones and designed by Nat Levy. Black always has, and more than likely always will be the top-fashion shade to select your costumes and accessories today at Kerven's.

26 Promotion Are Announced By Academics

Tech Sgt. Lucy M. Carle became the only Infantry School woman to be promoted to Master Sergeant this week when a list of 26 promotions of enlisted men and women was released by headquarters of the Academic Regiment.

M-Sgt. Carle has served as secretary of the Reception Center, School Adjutant General, since May 5. She was secretary to the assistant chief of staff for personnel at Second Army Headquarters, Memphis, Tenn., before coming to the school two years ago. Prior to her coming to the school in 1943 she was employed by Houghton Mifflin publishers in Boston.

Staff promotions were awarded to Tech 4 Rocco Frateschi, who was wounded in World War I and has served at Ft. Benning since 1933, and to Sgt. Harris M. Bryar, who has been assigned to the school since his enlistment in 1926.

Other new ranks are: Cpls. George H. Albrecht and Willard F. Cressler; Techs 5 Gerald J. Kozar, Arthur A. Niskanen, Walter T. Smith, Edward F. Hemzack and Dan Dykes, Jr.; Pfc. Lyle F. Youngstrom, who boys know! These ringing words from the manager would always bring the spirit of the team in the tight spot.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN WAC AT RC DISPENSARY
By SGT. N. H. BRONNER

Lt. Clayton, Supply and Executive Officer of the Reception Center Dispensary, thinking she was just on a routine inspection tour when suddenly she was stopped at the dispensary No. 2 where she was hailed "Happy Birthday to You" by all the dispensary forces.

After the birthday cake was cut, the celebrants feasted on a delicious menu consisting of fried chicken, potato salad, olives and all the trimmings. Punch was served for refreshment.

Autholgy of Writings of Colored Soldiers of World War II Compiled

A unique and inspirational type of Anthology containing the creative writings of Colored Soldiers of World War II is now being compiled by Lt. Peter W. Clark, Post Information-Education Officer at Tuskegee Army Air Field, Tuskegee, Alabama.

Already, many promising contributions have been received from all arms and branches of the armed forces including the Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, Nurse Corps and WACs.

All contributions will be sent to the compiler of this epoch-making anthology—Lt. Peter W. Clark, Tuskegee Army Air Field, Tuskegee, Alabama.

This anthology which is destined to take its place with the best creative literature to emerge from the war era, is primarily a cultural enterprise. The deadline set for the receipt of all contributions is June 1, 1946. The rules governing the submission of prospective articles are very simple as follows:

1. All contributions must be typed and double-spaced and submitted in duplicate. Only one side of the paper must be used for typing.

2. Naturally, all articles must be original and heretofore unpublished. All articles are eligible to make contributions.

3. Articles submitted may be either prose or poetry and representative of the following types of creative writings: poetry, free-verse, essays, personal sketches, biography or autobiography, short story, novelette, one-act play, editorial, short all types of creative articles are acceptable.

4. The editor and compiler of the anthology will reserve the right to publish or reject any and all articles submitted. All contributors are asked to enclose a self-addressed envelope for the return of unused material.

5. While the creative anthology is primarily of literary nature, other original creative products will be considered for acceptance, such as original sketches, musical scores, paintings, amateur photos and the like.

6. All articles accepted for publication must have been heretofore unpublished. In the case of a previously published article, contributors are asked to submit the periodical in which the article was published, the editor of the anthology will then communicate with the publishers for permission to use the article, or

Busa, Cure and Cenci Account for Tallies

ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 27. — Fort Benning's ponderous Doughboy grid machine showed plenty of offensive spark here this afternoon to pound out a 21-6 decision over the Fort McClellan Riflemen. The all-infantry clash drew upwards of 7,000 spectators, most of them GIs, into Anniston Memorial Stadium.

Turkey Tourney Golf Playoffs Start Sunday

Turkeys will be at stake when members of the Fort Benning Officers' Club start firing away this week end in the first round of match play in the annual Thanksgiving Turkey Tourney.

With the qualifying round completed last Sunday, Frank Goring has announced the pairings in six flights.

First round matches must be completed by this Sunday night, November 4th; second round matches by November 11th; and the finals by November 18th.

TURKEY PRIZES

Winners in all six flights will be awarded a huge live turkey as a prize, just in time for a succulent Thanksgiving Day dinner.

Medalist honors in the Turkey Tourney went to Lt. R. L. Smart, who marked up a 7, while Capt. Vernon Willoughby and Lt. Col. J. W. Dobson deadlocked for runner-up honors with a 77 apiece.

SMART VS. ROSS

In his first round match Sunday, Lt. Smart will oppose Col. Fay Ross, chairman of the golf committee at the local club and an accomplished linksman. Willoughby will play Lt. Col. E. C. V. Barnett. The other first flight match brings together Lt. Col. J. L. Chabot and Maj. C. W. McKee.

SECOND FLIGHT—Col. S. G. Kiehlmeier vs. Lt. Walter S. Kay-tling, Capt. G. L. Palsen vs. Lt. H. C. Hansen, Lt. H. J. Staib vs. Lt. Col. H. C. Britt, Capt. W. H. Kikoff vs. Lt. R. G. Leverette.

THIRD FLIGHT—Col. G. V. Millett vs. Lt. S. C. Crimm, Capt. M. T. Freil vs. Lt. J. H. Jackson, Col. J. W. Thompson vs. Lt. Col. R. R. Moore, Lt. Col. F. W. Oseth vs. Col. W. H. O'Mohund-ra.

FOURTH FLIGHT—Lt. J. F. Naughton vs. Maj. P. G. Wolsky, Maj. S. P. McFerrin vs. Capt. W. J. March, Col. L. D. Matthews vs. Lt. Col. E. C. Krause, Maj. Gen. John W. O'Daniel vs. Lt. W. G. Hecht.

SIXTH FLIGHT—Lt. Col. D. Dahien vs. Capt. Nel Osborne, Capt. Samuel Kroschel vs. Byt, Capt. D. R. Williams vs. Byt, Col. W. R. Williams vs. Byt.

TIGERS

Piggott, ex-Illinois halfback teamed with Jefferson gave the War-hawks two 10-second men in the backfield. Several players, out of the McDill Field game, have returned to the Warhawks' line-up, which should bolster the Air Force's attack.

BENNING HAS NOT BEATEN JACKSONVILLE

In the past three seasons which means that the time for the worm to turn may be at hand. Sunday will tell the tale, but whatever the answer, Benning's own Army-Navy game will be a thriller for the way.

BENNING OUTPLAYED THE RIFLEMEN

by a wide margin and piled up huge advantages in both first downs and net yardage. It was the third triumph of the year for the Doughboys against one defeat and one tie.

TOUCHDOWN! TOSS

The initial Doughboy score came midway in the first period after the rifle eleven had saved up and down field for several minutes after the kickoff.

THE RIFLEMEN CAME BACK FAST

after intermission to score on a pass play early in the third period. Nelson Peterson, McClellan playing coach from the Washington Redskins, heaved the touchdown aerial to Bob Scott.

THE DOUGHBOYS BEGAN TO MOVE

in earnest and pushed over two scores to sew up the verdict. The first tally came on a nifty 35-yard pass play with Bill Backus, speedy wingback from Rhode Island State. Again Hecht converted to give the Doughs a 14-0 bulge.

THE FINAL SCORE WAS ENTIRELY

a ground movement with Aldo Cenci, 240-pound tackle from Penn State, practically making it a solo effort. Taking over on the Doughboy 35 yard line, the former Maryland star, converted to the actual tally. Again Hecht converted to account for the final Doughboy tally.

McClellan eleven was its center

Joe Domonico, a 200-pound, full-American from Alabama. For the Doughboys, the entire squad which saw action perched on the backfield, including the line-men, Backs Cenci and Cure and Line-men Mike Gussie, Mike Spann, Phil Salisbury, Phil Salisbury, Ed Willard and Johnny Collins.

Mr. Shores entered the army in 1942, and after playing with the Army Air Forces Band at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., for awhile, he was accepted for Bandmaster School at Camp Lee, Va., graduating with a Warrant Officer rating. He was then sent to join the 87th Division Band, and served with the Golden Acorn Division overseas, returning to this country in July.

After he leaves the Army, Mr. Morris of Brownwood, Tex. They have two children, Cpl. Glenn Salisbury, Jr., who is stationed with the AAF at Clark Field, Manila, P. I., and Mrs. James C. Watson of Houston, Tex.

LANDS TEN-POUND BASS AT POST—OC Howard H. Eichendorfer for years has aspired to be an angler. Last Sunday morning at Clear Creek Pond he had a chance to show his stuff. He was overjoyed when he landed a nice two-pound bass early in the day. Shortly afterwards he was completely startled to see a huge swirl in the water near his lure. Soon he felt the tug of a huge fish, and later after a struggle he landed it. It was a ten-pound large mouth bass measuring 27 inches in length and 18 inches in girth, one of the largest of its specie ever caught here. Eichendorfer was using an 18-pound test line and a "Dixie Wiggler" as lure. The lucky fisherman is a member of the 4th Co., 3rd STR, and the son of Capt. and Mrs. Robert Eichendorfer.
